

Professional Development and Training

Professional development and training delivery for those within education, social care, health, youth justice, safeguarding, law enforcement or other professionals working with vulnerable children and young people to:

- ✓ Raise professional awareness of violence, vulnerability and exploitation
- ✓ Share and develop safeguarding and professional best practice
- ✓ Improve relationships, well-being and attitudes of children and young people
- ✓ Reduce risk of child exploitation and/or entry into the criminal justice system

Professionals Training

Overview:

Professionals training around our core themes for those working within education, social care, health, youth justice, safeguarding, law enforcement or other professionals working with vulnerable children and young people.

Content can be adapted to cover:

Gangs, Grooming and County Lines Explained
Knife Crime and Weapons Awareness
Understanding Gang Activity, Behaviour and Recruitment
Girls, Gangs and Empowerment (female-focused)

Child Sexual Exploitation and Child Criminal Exploitation Explained
Respect – Understanding Positive and Healthy Relationships
Gateway Drugs – Dispelling the Myths

Embedded Delivery (Full or part time): Contact direct for further information

We champion trained professionals who have shared experiences of the challenges, social issues or inequity children and young people face. We seek to de-glamourise, challenge the narrative and explore the realities of crime, violence and many of the societal issues that young people face today.

All of our work is aligned to the specific needs of those we work with, reflecting their local context, need, background and experiences.

Children & Young People As Part Of The Solution

We place improving outcomes for disadvantaged and/or vulnerable children and young people at the very core of our work. As such, all our training is delivered with a clear focus on not just upskilling professionals but also on sharing and developing practice across a broad spectrum of services to address the causes and reduce the effects of the focal problem that many children and young people are currently facing.
